* The habilitation work must meet the requirements stipulated in the following legal definition of a "monograph": Development of Academic Staff in the Republic of Bulgaria Act, SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS 10. (New, SG No. 30/2018, effective 4.05.2018) "Monograph" shall be taken to refer to a scholarly publication, which represents a thorough and comprehensive research of a certain topic, issue or personality, written by one or more authors who adhere to similar views on the topic. A monograph shall mean a scholarly work which shall not repeat or summarize existing knowledge, has been edited and/or reviewed by a scholar, has an ISBN and amounts to at least 100 standard pages with 1,800 characters per page. It shall contain an extensive content, a comprehensive bibliography, with references to other academic works.

The monograph must not contain texts that have already been submitted for previous procedures, such as for acquisition of the educational and academic degree of "Doctor", or the academic degree of "Doctor of Sciences", or a previous academic rank according to the Bulgarian legislation (e.g. Senior Assistant Professor).*

In order to prove the compliance with the requirements mentioned above some further explanations can be added:

1. The monograph has two print editions – one in 2011, 204 pp. ISBN 9781848930582 Pickering & Chatto (Publishers) Limited and one in 2016, 208 pp. ISBN 9781138661349 Published by Routledge. An e-book is also available ISBN 9781315655963, 208 pp. Published October 6, 2015 by Routledge.
2. It is indexed in Scopus, also in WOS by Chapters.

5. “This book can be considered as a sequel of an early book consisting of the author’s doctoral dissertation and published in French in Belgium in 1999.²³ Nevertheless, it proposes a different angle that emphasizes the international dimensions of Gutt’s career over his domestic ones. This book has also taken account of new materials, including an updating of the Belgian and international historiography on the different issues covered. Indeed, in the last decade, a series of biographies of some important actors during the period such as Paul van Zeeland, Paul-Henri Spaak and Hubert Pierlot have been published in Belgium. Other recent valuable works of reference are the two volumes on the history of the National Bank of Belgium. The first volume covers the Second World War while the second deals with Belgian postwar monetary policy.²⁴ There has also been a renewed interest in financial history, especially in its international dimensions in the last few decades. To the already mentioned books by Ferguson and Milward can be added the scholarship produced by Barry Eichengreen, Patricia Clavin and Harold James, without forgetting Robert Skidelsky’s biography of John Maynard Keynes.²⁵” /see the Introduction of the book/ The book also contains more than 50 new bibliographical references.
