

Step #6: Courses by Majors

Legend: P – Prerequisite | R – Required | E – Elective

You can choose one or two courses of the ones that are recommended for you this semester in the following document, depending on the field you are planning to major in.

Keep in mind that they are all 3-credit-courses.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

ECO 1001 Principles of Microeconomics (P)

ECO 1002 Principles of Macroeconomics (P)

STA 1005 Statistics (P)

COMPUTER SCIENCE

COS 1020 C++ Programming (R) or an assessment

COS 1050 Discrete Structures (R)

POLITICAL SCIENCE & INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

POS 1001 Introduction to Politics (R)

POS 1002 Introduction to Global Politics (R)

PHYSICS

PHY 1010 Mechanics and Thermodynamics (R)

PHY 1020 Electromagnetism, Relativity, and
Quantum Physics (R)

HISTORY

HTY 1008 Introduction to Archeology (E)

EUR 1011 EU Integration (E)

HTY 1001 Global History to 1500 (R)

HTY 1002 Global History since 1500 (R)

HTY 2013 Modern Europe (E)

HTY 2024 Bulgarian History (E)

HTY 2025 Balkans 1918-2000 (E)

HTY 2042 US from 1865 (E)

ECONOMICS

ECO 1001 Principles of Microeconomics (R)

ECO 1002 Principles of Macroeconomics (R)

MAT 1003 Calculus I (P)

INFORMATION SYSTEMS

INF 1030 Basics in C# Programming (R)

INF 1050 Personal Productivity with IT (E)

INF 2040 Website Development (E)

JOURNALISM & MASS COMMUNICATIONS

JMC 1041 Communication, Media and Society (R)

MATHEMATICS

MAT 1003 Calculus I (R)

MAT 1005 Linear Algebra and Analytical Geometry (R)

PSYCHOLOGY

PSY 1001 Introduction to Psychology (R)

PSY 1002 Introduction to Social Psychology (R)

EUROPEAN STUDIES

EUR 1011 EU Integration (R)